President's Report – 2024

In 2024, the TJF Board of Directors consisted of Rosemary Gibb (President), Mark Cuddy (Secretary), and Dave Gibb (Treasurer). Directors at Large were Danielle Parenteau, Helen Barkley, Mary Martineau, and Helen Shaw.

Of the 17 funding applications received in 2024, TJF provided a total of $19,000, distributed among four programs. Since its inception in 2000, TJF has made 73 funding awards totalling $339,710.

1. We have supported TEMBO (Tanzania Education and Micro-Business Opportunity) for the past four years and for several years before that. For 20 years TEMBO has been providing secondary school education for girls, and micro-business opportunities for women in Northern Tanzania, in the rain shadow of Mount Kilimanjaro. TEMBO was awarded $5000.

2. The Malawi Water Project (Healthy Lives International), requested and received $4000 to support the continuation of their Borehole Repair Program, which is a key component of their mission to ensure reliable access to clean water in Malawi. Last year our TJF funds were crucial in repairing four boreholes and assisting to educate 14 volunteers on borehole maintenance. The Malawi Water Project provided an informative video for Trinity's May 12th TJF Sunday Service.

3. Embrace International Foundation sought and received $5000 for their “Engaging Rural Ugandan Teachers in E-Learning for Students Living with Disabilities”. This program is expected to increase the knowledge of 100 Ugandan primary school teachers on how to better engage these students through the use of educational technology.

4. ALDO (Amazing Love Development Organization) has developed “The Girls’ Empowerment Program”. Its goal is to encourage girls' access to education, health services, and economic opportunities in Uganda. TJF's support of $5000 will furnish a girls' new dormitory with proper, durable beds and essential amenities to create a secure and supportive environment, conducive to their learning.

On behalf of the TJF Board, I thank the Trinity congregation for its interest in, and support of these very worthy programs.
